

The Three Little Pigs: Adjectives

1. Read through the PPT
2. Read the story again
3. Answer the questions

Once upon a time there were three little pigs. Pig 1 didn't like to work so he quickly built a messy house out of straw. Pig 2 spent most of his time talking to his friends and telling jokes, so he quickly built a house with sticks. Pig 3 knew to build the safest house he would have to work hard and build a house of bricks.

A big bad wolf saw the pigs and said, "Wow, that sam gyeop sal looks delicious!" He went to pig 1's house and he huffed and puffed and blew the house down in minutes. Pig 1 was so scared, he ran to Pig 2's house of sticks. The big bad wolf now came to this house and huffed and puffed and blew the house down in no time. Now, the two little pigs were terrified and they ran to Pig 3's house of bricks.

The big bad wolf tried to huff and puff and blow the house down, but he could not. "Hey, you stinky, smelly, dirty pigs...let me in!" shouted the wolf. He kept trying but the house was very strong and the little pigs were safe inside. He climbed down the chimney but he fell into a big pot of hot water and died. The three pigs lived happily ever after.

1. Find 10 adjectives in the story.

1		6
2		7
3		8
4		9
5		10

2. Underline the correct adjective.

Wow! This kimchi stew is so sweet / spicy.

This is a cute / scary monster.

Some people like to drive a sports car because sports cars are fast / slow.

The Amazon rainforest is huge / tiny.

3. Put an adjective in the space to finish the sentence.

a.) Look! it's a dog.

b.) Summer is always very c.) I want to eat a hamburger.

d.) She read a(n) book.

e.) My brother is and